No Money With Which to Entertain Visiting Naval Heroes.

Long Debate of Ordinance Imposing School Poll Tax on Male Residents—Money Voted to Fireman Barrett's Widow—Other Matters.

The Common Council met in regular monthly session last night. The Select Branch also met in special session, the purpose of the meeting being to pass upon the ordinance appropriating $1,500 for a representation of the battles of Manila and Santiago in pyrotechnics during the stay of the North Atlantic squadron in Hampton Roads.

When the news was brought into the Common Council that the Select Branch was awaiting its action on the appropriation Captain Fawcett Taylor moved that the fireworks ordinance be laid on the table, remarking that if any gentleman desired to resurrect it later on there would be no objection. The vote was unanimous in favor of Mr. Taylor's motion.

SELECT COUNCIL.

The Select Council did nothing except to pass a resolution empowering the Park Committee to confer with the street railway authorities in reference to securing better facilities for handling passengers to the city park and better lights there. An extension of the street railway track is desired. The committee was instructed to report to the Council what agreement it reached with the railway. Similar action to the above was taken by the Common Council also.

THE COMMON COUNCIL.

When the Common Council had disposed of a few minor matters Mr. Camp's ordinance amending the law imposing a 50 cents school tax on every male resident in the city over 21 years old came up. Mr. Camp's amendment strikes out that clause which operates to exclude from the public schools the children of those who fail to pay the tax.

Mr. Camp made a speech favoring the amendment.

Mr. East opposed the amendment. Mr. Taylor offered an amendment, which Mr. East said he would accept as a compromise. The effect of this was that anyone who should make an oath that he was unable to pay the tax should be exempted.

THE VOTE.

Mr. Taylor's substitute was lost by the following vote: Taylor and East, Ayes—McManus, Taylor and East, Nays—Camp, Cake, Cousins, Joyner, Jones, Kiernan, Ridgewell, Smith, Beaman and Stahl.

Mr. Camp's amendment was then passed by a vote of 10 to 2. But Mr. Taylor declared that inasmuch as the ordinance imposed a tax a majority of all the members of the Common Council was necessary to its passage. Over this proposition came a long parliamentary mix-up. Mr. Camp contended that his ordinance did not impose a tax, but only re-enacted an ordinance which imposed a tax for the purpose of amending it.

After a long discussion, Mr. Beaman, in the chair, ruled in favor of Mr. Taylor. Mr. Camp started to take an appeal from the chair's decision, but it was decided to leave the question for the City Attorney to decide. Later on, however, Mr. Camp introduced another ordinance obviating, as he thought, the necessity of a constitutional majority. This ordinance did not re-enact the original ordinance, but simply struck out the objectionable clause.

President East, however, ruled that this, too, was in effect an ordinance imposing taxes. Mr. Camp gave notice that he would move for a reconsideration at the next meeting of the Council. On the last vote taken Mr. Camp's ordinance lacked but one vote of receiving a constitutional majority.

BRAMBLETON'S QUOTA.

The resolution from the Local Board of Brambleton Ward, approved by the Finance Committee, providing for the payment of $2,500 by that ward as its proportion of the amount expended for health purposes, was approved.

The petition of W. V. Archer, City Apothecary, asking for an increase of salary, was adversely reported by the Finance Committee, and its action sustained.

MONEY FOR FIREMAN'S WIDOW.

On recommendation of the Fire Committee, an ordinance was passed providing for the payment of $500 to the widow of the late Thomas A. Barrett, fireman, who died from injuries sustained at the St. Vincent's Hospital fire.

This is the salary of a fireman for one year, and it is to be paid to Mrs. Barrett in semi-monthly installments for one year.

A resolution, appropriating $500 additional for strengthening and improving Holt Street bridge, as per the recommendation of the Street, Sewer and Drain Board, was passed. Councils appropriated $4,000, one half of which is to be paid by Brambleton, to cover the expense of this work, but the lowest bid for the contract exceeded this sum by $160.

TRANSIT COMPANY'S PETITION.

The petition of the Chesapeake Transit Company for street railway franchise over certain streets in Brambleton and across Mahone's Lake, to connect with its line (to be constructed) to Cape Henry, approved by the Brambleton Local Board, was referred to the Street Committee.

The resolution from the Brambleton Local Board, asking for the issue of $20,000 bonds for an additional school building, was referred to the Finance Committee.

The resignation of Mr. D. J. Callahan was received and accepted with expressions of regret. He is going to remove from the Third Ward, which he represents in the Common Council.

Injured by Electric Car.

A colored man named John Small was run over by an electric car in Ghent last night about 9:30 o'clock. The injured man was taken to the Norfolk Protestant Hospital, where he was attended by Dr. Graves, who, upon an examination, found that he had only sustained several bruises. The conductor and motorman of the car were not arrested.

(Communicated.)

Important Meeting.

There will be an important meeting of the Entertainment Committee of the Protestant Hospital this (Wednesday) morning at 9:30 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. A full attendance is requested.

CHAIRMAN.

AN EVENING MARRIAGE.

MISS HAIGH THE BRIDE OF MR. ROBINSON.

A beautiful nuptial event was solemnized at Emmanuel P. E. Chapel, corner of Calvert and Wide streets, at 8 o'clock last night, when Miss Annie M. Haigh, the adopted daughter of Captain Edward Haynes, became the bride of Mr. James H. Robinson, son of Mr. J. R. Robinson, and one of Norfolk's most popular young residents.

The edifice was elaborately decorated with golden rods, palms, ferns and smilax in honor of the auspicious occasion.

The bride was costumed in a handsome white silk mill, trimmed in valenciennes lace, with bridal veil, and carried bride's roses.

The maid of honor was Miss Florence Haynes, daughter of Captain Haynes. She wore white organdie, trimmed with white lace, and carried white carnations.

Misses Eva Bell and Gertrude Thum were the bridesmaids. They were attired in dresses similar to that of the maid of honor, and carried pink carnations.

Little Miss Carrie Haigh, sister of the bride, filled the role as flower girl. She wore blue organdie, trimmed in white taffeta ribbon and white lace.

The best man was Mr. Geo. B. Haynes, and the ushers were Messrs. John T. Hargrove, Jr., and William M. Burgess. The groom, his best man and ushers appeared in full evening dress.

Promptly at the hour the wedding party entered the church in the following order: The flower girl in the lead, strewn roses in her pathway; next came the ushers and the maid of honor and bridesmaids, the bride bringing up the rear on the arm of her adopted father, by whom she was given away while the wedding march from Mendelssohn was sweetly played on the organ.

Arriving in front of the chancel the bride was met by the groom and his best man, and Miss Haigh and Mr. Robinson were happily united in the bonds of holy wedlock, the impressive service of the Episcopal Church being performed by Rev. John H. Dickinson.

At the conclusion of the nuptials the bride and groom repaired to Portsmouth, but will leave this morning over the Norfolk and Western road on a bridal tour North.

An elegant reception was tendered the bridal party at the home of Captain Haynes in Huntersville Monday night, about seventy-five guests being present to enjoy the festive occasion. The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful and costly presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will be at home to their friends, corner of Central and Avenue C, Huntersville, after October 11th.

CHARGES AGAINST DRUGGISTS. The cases of Robert L. and John W. Montague, trading as Montague & Co., at the corner of Church street and Princess Anne avenue; L. B. Montague, Jr., the clerk employed by the above firm; W. W. Coggin, proprietor of the pharmacy at the corner of Queen and Cumberland streets, and Wm. B. Spencer, the clerk employed there, were called in the Police Court yesterday and continued to the 12th instant. Mr. E. R. Beckwith, Secretary of the Board of Pharmacy of Virginia, was the complainant in each warrant. Mr. A. B. Richmond, general counsel for the Board of Pharmacy, and Commonwealth's Attorney Duncan appeared for the prosecution. Mr. James U. Goode appeared for the Messrs. Montague and Mr. Wm. McK. Woodhouse appeared for Dr. Coggin and Mr. Spencer as counsel for the defense.

THE CHARGES. Messrs. Robert L. and John W. Montague are charged with conducting a retail drug store without having a registered pharmacist in their employ, or being registered chemists. Messrs. L. B. Montague, Jr., and Wm. B. Spencer are accused of compounding prescriptions without first having secured a certificate as registered pharmacists, and in the absence of a person holding a proper certificate, Dr. Coggin is charged with allowing an unregistered pharmacist to compound prescriptions in his absence.

Mr. George M. Meredith, whose name was mentioned in connection with the investigation by the grand jury, has not had a warrant served on him. He desires it to be understood that he has not permitted an unregistered pharmacist to compound prescriptions in his absence from his drug store, and that the gentleman who has been employed in this capacity held the certificate required by law.

Death of a Good Citizen.

Mr. John A. Warwick died suddenly at his home, No. 221 East Brambleton avenue, at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness of only six days, aged 52 years. The deceased was a native of Petersburg, but came to Norfolk with his family ten years ago, and during his residence in this city was engaged in the produce commission business. He was a gentleman of sterling character and was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. His sudden demise is a severe blow to his family and his kindred elsewhere.

He was a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, holding his membership with McKendree Church at the time of his demise. He leaves a widow and five children—three sons and two daughters—all of whom are well.

The time of funeral will be announced later. His remains will be taken to Petersburg for burial in Old Highland Cemetery beside near kindred who have preceded him to the grave.

Notice to Clothiers

The committee of two who waited on the clothing merchants of Norfolk yesterday, notifying them that one of the merchants would keep his store open at night in future, were not authorized by The Retail Clerk's Union, as understood by some, but were sent by the party who wished to keep open.
